

Euclid and Canadian Senior Mathematics Contests

Why Participate?

- Students who write one or both of the contests and apply to a Faculty of Mathematics program at the University of Waterloo are considered for Scholarships
- A strong score can help gain admission to the Faculty of Mathematics programs at the University of Waterloo
- Certificates of Distinction awarded to students who score in the top 25%
- Demonstrate and improve your mathematics skills while having fun doing math

Contest Dates

- 01 Canadian Senior Mathematics Contest
November 15, 2023 (North & South America)
November 16, 2023 (Outside North & South America)
- 02 Euclid Contest
April 3, 2024 (North & South America)
April 4, 2024 (Outside North & South America)

Our website offers...

- Copies of many past contests and solutions
- Other free practice materials and resources

SCAN ME or visit
cemc.uwaterloo.ca

For students

- Mathematics contests for senior-level secondary school students
- Written by thousands worldwide
- Short-answer and full-solution questions
- Marks awarded for correctness and presentation
- Allows you to demonstrate your knowledge
- Later problems challenge the best students in the world

For educators

- Easy online registration
- Order for one student only or as many interested students as you want
- Simple administration; instructions sent in contest package
- Build a relationship with an internationally-renowned Canadian University, famous for supporting mathematics education worldwide