Ethics of Analyzing Speech

For each of the following statements, select how much you agree or disagree.

People reveal a lot about themselves when they speak.

I could identify someone's age by listening to them speak.

I could identify someone's ethnicity by listening to them speak.

I could identify how someone is feeling by listening to them speak.

Voice assistants are pretty accurate when it comes to understanding speech.

Voice assistants are pretty accurate when it comes to identifying traits of the speaker.

I am worried that voice assistants may make incorrect assumptions about me.

I am careful about what I say around voice assistants.

I am okay with tech companies recording my voice data for artificial intelligence training purposes.

I am okay with tech companies recording my voice data in order to send me more personalized advertisements.

I am comfortable owning and using a voice assistant.