

Problem of the Week

Problem A

3-D Fun

The three-dimensional figure shown was built using interlocking cubes.

When we look at the figure directly from the top, we will see the following image, which is called the top view.

- A) How many cubes in total are in the three-dimensional figure? Is there more than one possible answer?
- B) Draw the front view and side view of the figure.