

Problem of the Week

Problem D

Sharing Sweets

Diana has 10 candies, and she wishes to give all 10 candies to her three friends, Victoria, Manuela, and Alejandra. She does not necessarily want to distribute the candy equally, but she does want each friend to receive at least one candy. In how many ways can she distribute the candies to Victoria, Manuela, and Alejandra?

